

Innovate, Elevate, Lead
The Future of Human Services Technology

101010

10101010101010

1010101010

Approved Breakout Sessions for Continuing Education (CE) Credits

Monday, September 15:

- Collaboratively Advocating through Change for a Dignified Experience for our Workforce and the People We Serve
- Improving Equity and Efficiency in Benefit Delivery: Illinois' Statewide Processing Success Story
- Leveraging Technology and Collaboration for Community Impact
- Preventing and Overcoming Systemic Challenges in Foster Care
- Listening to Community for Improved Services

Tuesday, September 16:

- Partner Palooza: Fostering Collaboration, Building Connections, and Nurturing a 'familia' within the Health and Human Services Ecosystem
- Transforming Human Services Delivery in 60 Days: A Collaborative Approach in Louisiana
- Real World Enhancement to Workforce Development and Child Welfare via AI
- Harnessing Data to Support Thriving Individuals and Families
- Teaching Social Workers to Manage Data as Well as They Manage Families
- Wins and Workarounds: Innovative Approaches to Workforce Challenges

Wednesday, September 17:

- Collective Impact: Power of Agency Collaboration in an Integrated World

* Earn up to 12 hours of Continuing Education (CE) Credits from select breakout sessions during the conference (approved by Stockton University). Look for the green CE-approved badge icon on signage during the conference!

The cost to add CE credits is $100 and can be added as an option during the online registration process. If you didn't add the CE credits when you initially registered or wish to add it at the conference, please stop by the ISM Registration Desk to purchase.