

Vice-Chairperson:

CoLab for CommUnity Impact- Community of Practice

Eboni Washington

Director of Government & Community Relations, Action for Child Protection

Eboni Washington brings over two decades of experience in non-profit and local government leadership to her role as Director of Government and Community Relations at Action for Child Protection. She previously served as Deputy Director at Clark County's Departments of Juvenile Justice Services and Family Services, where she led initiatives to expand juvenile justice programs, implement data-driven solutions, and improve child welfare services through an equity lens.

A passionate collaborator and strategist, Eboni is dedicated to advancing equity, inclusion, and stronger outcomes for children, youth, and families. She holds a Bachelor's in Health Ecology from the University of Nevada, Reno, and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. She is also a longtime APHSA member and former Governing Board Director.

Chairperson:

CoLab for CommUnity Impact- Community of Practice

Brandi Turner
Strategic Coach Program Manager, Organizational Health & Development, Kansas Department for Children and Families

Brandi Turner is the Strategic Coach Program Manager at the Kansas Department for Children and Families, where she integrates coaching strategies to strengthen leadership capacity and align with the agency's core Beliefs. She is committed to fostering meaningful connections, empowering individuals to lead from any position, and building a culture where everyone can thrive.

Passionate about human development, Brandi creates spaces for deep reflection, courageous conversations, and momentum toward justice, well-being, and belonging.

Through innovative coaching and engagement tools, she helps individuals and communities move from dialogue to action with clear, tangible next steps.

